

U3A Seymour & District Inc
Chittick Place, Pollard St, Seymour

Web: www.u3aseymour.org.au
Facebook: Uthreese Seymour

President
Irene Telford

Secretary
Jo Gooden

PO Box 767, Seymour 3661

Office Phone: 0448 153 572

Email: seymu3a@gmail.com

NOTICEBOARD

October 2025

A very brief Notice Board this month as things start to wind down for Christmas.

Reports from Groups

Book Buffet

Our last book, Commonwealth by Ann Patchett, received mixed reviews. Some members enjoyed the story, while others did not enjoy the movement from present to past throughout the book.

Our next title is Slave to Sensation by Nalini Singh. It is listed as a psy/changeling novel which is a genre we have not explored very much. It should be interesting.

Next meeting we will choose some titles for 2026. Please have a look at the list at the end of this Notice Board, and come with some suggestions.

Jo

Garden Matters

Garden Group members met at Chittick Park U3A Building on Wednesday 10th September and car pooled to a property just outside Seymour. Thanks to Anna for arranging the visit and the opportunity to practice our pruning skills on the orchard. Members discussed the correct and incorrect ways of pruning various fruit trees and later adjourned to Anna's house for a cuppa and cake before heading off.

Next meeting is scheduled for 15 October with a visit to Irene's garden and a talk on Permaculture Principals.

Details of this visit will be forwarded directly to members at a later date.

Til next time, Happy Gardening

Pam

Jessica's Corral

We have experienced up and down numbers, but what we lack in bodies we make up for in effort! Some of the harmonies take lots of practice which is difficult when we can't all be there. We are pretty good at Shenandoah and are working on Cockles and Mussels. We are lucky to have representation in four registers, soprano, alto tenor and bass. It makes for beautiful music!

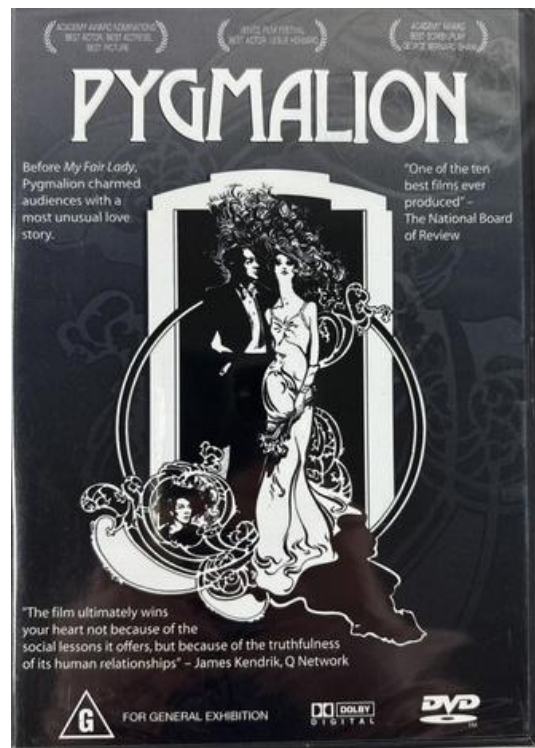

Jo

Matinee

Pygmalion is a 1938 British film based on the 1913 George Bernard Shaw play of the same name, and adapted by him for the screen. It stars Leslie Howard as Professor Henry Higgins and Wendy Hiller as Eliza Doolittle.

The snobbish and intellectual Professor of languages, Henry Higgins, makes a bet with his friend that he can pluck a London flower seller, Eliza Doolittle, from the gutters and pass her off as a society lady; however, he discovers that this involves dealing with a human being with ideas of her own.

The film was a financial and critical success, and won an Oscar for Best Screenplay and three more nominations: Best Picture, Best Actor (Howard), and Best Actress (Hiller). The screenplay later was adapted into the 1956 theatrical musical My Fair Lady, which in turn led to the 1964 film of the same name.

All notices for the next Noticeboard need to be emailed to U3A
(seymu3a@gmail.com) and Heather (123hbee@gmail.com) on or before

July 23

If you have any photographs of any activities, or busy groups, please email them to U3A and Heather.

Noticeboard will be sent out on July 28.